S.K.H. Holy Trinity Church Secondary School
Guidelines on Application for Discretionary Places Allocation of S.1

Our school was founded by the S.K.H. Holy Trinity Cathedral in 1978 and is a government subsidized school. Currently we have 24 classes. Our school mainly uses Chinese as the medium of instructions in the junior forms but also uses English for learning selected classes and subjects to cater for students' needs. Our school offers the new senior secondary curriculum and students are able to complete six years of education. Our school offers four S1 classes in 2027-2028.

Our school aims to:

1. Enhance students' learning motivation and efficacy through Self- Regulatory Learning, Peer Learning, Special Support Programs, Tailored Curriculum and Talks by the Principal;
2. Cultivate a reading culture to help students consolidate their academic knowledge and broaden their knowledge horizon;
3. Focus on English learning and teaching. We have four Native English Speaking Teachers at our school;
4. Organise an array of co-curricular activities to be held regularly during lunch time and after school to increase students' interest in learning;
5. Strengthen students' support network and foster a healthy culture based on Christian values. Our school has won the honour of "Caring Campus" for many years.
6. Encourage students to excel themselves in extra-curricular activities;
7. Foster students' growth with Christian values.
